Call to Worship

Led by Deacon Carl Johnsen (he/him)

You are invited to follow along with the motions described in body or in spirit.

We gather as one body with many members,

We come to worship our God.

Lifting our hands in celebration,

We come to worship our God.

Stomping our feet in frustration,

We come to worship our God.

Turning around in wonder,

We come to worship our God.

With our hands, feet, hearts, minds, and bodies,

We come to worship our God.

Centering Words

Read by Kylie Morel (she/her)

a blessing for when you're tired of broken systems by Kate Bowler

Oh God, I am done with broken systems that break the very people they are meant to serve.

Harness this anger.
Channel it into worthy action and show me what is mine to fix and what boundaries to patrol to keep goodness in and evil out.

Blessed are we who are appalled that brute ignorance can so easily dominate over decency, honesty, & integrity.

Blessed are we, who choose not to look away from systems that dehumanize, deceive, defame, and distort.

We who recognize that thoughts and prayers are not enough.

We who stand with truth over expediency,
principle over politics,
community over competition.

Oh God, how blessed are we who cry out to you:
empower us to see and name what is broken,
what is ours to restore,
guide us to find coherent and beautiful alternatives that foster life, hope, and peace.
Help us use our gifts with one another in unity.

Blessed are we who choose to live in anticipation,
our eyes scanning the horizon,
for signs of your kingdom—
heaven-come-down—
as we wait in hope and act with courage.

We Pass the Peace of Christ

Celebration of Gratitude

"If the only prayer you said was thank you, that would be enough."

-Meister Eckhart

As we name the abundant blessings of our lives (anniversaries, birthdays, clean-and-sober milestones, and many more!), we offer a gratitude gift in any amount, so that the blessings we have received from God may be multiplied and shared with all who long to experience God's extravagant welcome in this church and beyond.

Please consider using a gratitude heart, located in the racks in the pews, if you choose to make a gratitude gift.

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Holy God, we give you thanks for bread and cup, table and community, for Christ and for each other. As this feast becomes part of our bodies, awaken us to the knowledge that we are the body of Christ together. As this blessing becomes part of our lives, awaken us to be Your hands and Your feet in this world.

God who is Love, hear us now as we call out the prayers of our own hearts to You:

(We name our prayers to God, aloud or in our hearts)

Hear our prayers, we humbly pray. And hear us now as we pray the prayer Jesus taught us saying...

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who have sinned against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Guide us in Your way and use these gifts to make our church and our world even more:

Outdoor Worship Dream-a-thon

Last spring, we gathered to begin imagining what new outdoor worship and prayer spaces might look like. This March, you're invited to another imaginative gathering, the Outdoor Worship Dream-a-thon on Sunday, March 1st from 11:45am-12:45pm in the Fellowship Hall. Lunch will be provided! Reflecting on our big ideas and research from the last year, we'll make a plan to gather for outdoor worship and prayer in new ways in 2026 and beyond.
